Education Department – Cal Teach

Lecturer Pool

The Education Department at the University of California, Santa Cruz invites applications for an on-going pool of qualified temporary instructors for Cal Teach 1 and 2 courses (education 50B, 50C, 75B, 75C). Cal Teach is part of the UC-wide Science Mathematics Initiative with the goal of increasing the quality and number of highly qualified secondary science and math teachers prepared in California. Cal Teach is deeply interested in preparing future educators to serve the diverse student bodies of public schools in the state of California. Experienced math and/or science teachers are encouraged to apply. Successful applicants will teach seminar courses for undergraduates, which accompany K-12 internships in local science and math classrooms. These courses examine K-12 students and how they learn, K-12 schools, and science and/or mathematics instruction, with emphasis on developing an instructional project aligned with California content standards. In addition, the instructor helps facilitate coordination and communication among students and staff involved in the Cal Teach program.
