UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, SANTA CRUZ
DEPARTMENT OF FILM AND DIGITAL MEDIA DEPARTMENT
Lecturer Pool: Film and Television Industry

The Film and Digital Media Department at the University of California, Santa Cruz invites applications for an ongoing pool of qualified temporary instructors from the film and television industry to teach a 2-5 unit course (FILM 10 or similar course) aimed at providing insight and/or instruction relevant to various professions and processes in the industry. Both lecture and practice courses will be considered. We are especially interested in candidates who can contribute to the diversity and excellence of the academic community through their teaching.

Candidates accepted to our pool may be approached by other units to teach in areas related to their demonstrated areas of expertise. Regular appointments are during the academic year, but accepted candidates will also be eligible for Summer Session appointments.

RANK: Lecturer

SALARY: Minimum $2,500 per 2-unit course or minimum $6,405 per 5-unit course during the academic year, commensurate with qualifications and experience. The campus operates on a schedule of three 11-week quarters per academic year. A full time appointment is based upon an eight-course equivalency. Summer Session appointments fall outside of the academic year, and resulting compensation may vary.

BASIC QUALIFICATIONS: Demonstrated experience working in the film and television industry.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS: Master's or doctorate degree in film, digital media, art, television, new media, social documentation, or similar creative practice or critical studies field. Teaching experience.

POSITION AVAILABLE: As openings occur, contingent upon need and availability of funding.

TO APPLY: Applications are accepted via the UCSC Academic Recruit online system, and must include 1) a letter of application that includes a description of professional and other relevant qualifications and experience; 2) curriculum vitae; 3) proposed topic and description for a course with a four to eleven-week sample syllabus with a brief explanation of how the topic would augment the current department curriculum (view current FDM curriculum); 4) names and contact information of three qualified and recognized authorities in the field from whom references may be sought*. Optional materials may include writing samples, samples of creative work (upload PDFs with links to specific samples of moving image or other creative work), and evaluations of past teaching. All documents uploaded to the UC Recruit online system must be in PDF format.

*Prior to any appointment, candidates chosen for this pool will be asked to request three confidential letters of recommendation. All letters will be treated as confidential per University of California policy and California state law. For any reference letter provided via a third party (i.e., dossier service, career center), direct the author to UCSC's confidentiality statement at <http://apo.ucsc.edu/confstm.htm>.
