UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, SANTA CRUZ
DEPARTMENT OF OCEAN SCIENCES
Lecturer

The Department of Ocean Sciences at UCSC invites applications for an on-going pool of qualified part-time temporary lecturer(s) to teach various introductory courses. Course topics include all areas of oceanography, including biological, chemical, and physical oceanography and marine biology and geology. These courses are designed to meet campus general education requirements and standard texts and/or readers may be used for these classes. All areas and subspecialties of Ocean and Marine Sciences will be seriously considered. Special attention will be given to persons with proven undergraduate teaching skills. Teaching assistants may be assigned to assist instructors and will be supervised by the instructor. Regular appointments are during the academic year, but accepted candidates will also be eligible for Summer Session appointments.

RANK: Lecturer

SALARY: Commensurate with experience and qualifications. The salary is approximately $8,300 per course (prorated for percent of time). Compensation for Summer Session courses may vary from this amount.

BASIC QUALIFICATIONS: Ph.D. or equivalent foreign degree in Ocean, Marine, or Atmospheric Sciences or a related field.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS: Demonstrated ability for university teaching.

POSITION AVAILABLE: As openings occur starting Fall quarter 2014.

TO APPLY: Applications are accepted via the UCSC Academic Recruit online system, and must include a letter of application; a curriculum vitae; a sample course syllabus; teaching evaluations, if available; and three confidential letters of recommendation.* Documents/materials must be submitted as PDF files.
