

Merrill College at the University of California, Santa Cruz (UCSC) invites applications for an on-going pool of qualified part-time temporary lecturers to teach occasional seminar-style “college enhancement” courses under the direction of the Merrill College Provost. Enhancement courses should contribute to at least one of the college’s long-standing interests: teaching social justice, encouraging public service, or understanding the developing world. Applicants should be able to draw from expertise in one or several of the major disciplinary subject areas (Arts, Engineering, Humanities, Physical and Biological Sciences, and Social Sciences) or expertise in one or several professional fields (including but certainly not limited to education, non-profit management, non-governmental organization (NGO) experience, documentary work). Courses including fieldwork or another experiential element are especially encouraged.

Regular appointments are during the academic year, but accepted candidates will also be eligible for Summer Session appointments, if they become available.

RANK: Lecturer

SALARY: Commensurate with qualifications, experience, and number of course units taught per quarter. Compensation for Summer Session courses may vary from courses taught during the academic year.

BASIC QUALIFICATIONS: Master’s degree or a minimum of ten years of professional experience in a field or fields relevant to the proposed course (e.g. non-profit management, program coordination, documentary development, and educational administration). College-level teaching experience as instructor of record, teaching assistant, or instructor of professional training seminars.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS: Applicants with professional experience in social justice or public service organizations, or with professional experience conducting fieldwork, are particularly encouraged to apply. University-level teaching experience as instructor of record.

POSITION AVAILABLE: As openings occur, appointments contingent upon availability of funding.

TO APPLY: Applications are accepted via the UCSC Academic Recruit online system, and must include a letter of application addressing how the candidate meets the qualifications; current curriculum vitae; evaluations of teaching (if available); sample course materials—syllabus, handouts, etc. (if available); and a minimum of 2 current letters of recommendation*. Documents/materials must be submitted as PDF files.
