UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, SANTA CRUZ
DEPARTMENT OF MOLECULAR, CELL & DEVELOPMENTAL BIOLOGY
Assistant Professor, Molecular Biology

The Molecular, Cell & Developmental Biology Department at the University of California Santa Cruz (UCSC) invites applications for 1-2 tenure-track positions at the Assistant Professor level in Molecular Biology. Applicants should be addressing fundamental questions in molecular biology using state-of-the-art experimental approaches and have an outstanding record of research accomplishments. We particularly encourage applicants who complement the department's existing strengths in studying RNA, chromatin, cell division, macromolecular structure, and neuroscience and use quantitative methods. Candidates will be expected to establish a vigorous externally funded research program, contribute to the intellectual vitality of the UCSC scientific community, teach at the undergraduate and graduate levels in the classroom and through mentorship, and provide service to the campus and their profession. The successful candidate will be able to work with students, faculty, and staff from a range of social and cultural backgrounds, and we especially welcome applicants who will contribute to the diversity and excellence of the UCSC academic community through research, teaching, and/or service.
