UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, SANTA CRUZ
DEPARTMENT OF MATHEMATICS
Visiting Assistant Professor

The Mathematics Department at the University of California, Santa Cruz, expects to have one or more Visiting Assistant Professorships subject to availability of funding. We invite applications from qualified mathematicians in all fields. Preference will be given to candidates whose field of research belongs to Algebra or Number Theory and aligns well with the Department's research activities. The successful candidate will be expected to contribute to the undergraduate and graduate degree programs, teach, mentor and advise students at the graduate and undergraduate level individually and in the classroom, and undertake service obligations for the department. The successful candidate must be able to work with students, faculty and staff from a wide range of social and cultural backgrounds. We are especially interested in candidates who can contribute to the diversity and excellence of the academic community through their research, teaching, and service.
