Nondiscrimination and Affirmative Action Policy Statement Regarding Employment Practices

The University of California prohibits discrimination against or harassment of any person employed by or seeking employment with the University on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender, gender expression, gender identity, sex stereotype, pregnancy, physical or mental disability, medical condition (cancer-related or genetic characteristics), genetic information (including family medical history), ancestry, marital status, age, sexual orientation, citizenship, status as a protected veteran or service in the uniformed services. The UC Nondiscrimination Policy applies to prohibited conduct by co-workers and third parties, as well as supervisors, managers and other university officials.

University policy prohibits retaliation against any employee or persons seeking employment for bringing a complaint of discrimination or harassment. University policy also prohibits retaliation against a person who assists someone with a complaint of discrimination or harassment, or participates in any manner in an investigation or resolution of a complaint of discrimination or harassment. Retaliation includes threats, intimidation, reprisals, and/or adverse actions related to employment.

Absolute confidentiality cannot be promised. However, those investigating discrimination and harassment complaints only share or disclose information as is absolutely necessary to conduct an investigation, work toward a resolution or as policies or laws require. We ask that all involved parties maintain appropriate levels of confidentiality.

UC Santa Cruz maintains comprehensive complaint processes to address discrimination and harassment concerns to ensure that: appropriate confidentiality is maintained; reporters receive a timely response; investigations are conducted in a timely fashion by impartial, qualified personnel and systems are in place for documenting and tracking progress; and appropriate remedial actions and resolutions are offered.

The University of California is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age or protected veteran status. University policy is intended to be consistent with the provisions of applicable state and federal laws.

I affirm that I have been informed of UCSC’s employment related nondiscrimination policies, available procedures, and resources.
