INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE FORMAL COMPLAINT FORM

1. Download the form in Adobe Acrobat to complete and sign. Alternatively you may print and complete a hard copy. If more than one person is being accused of violating the Faculty Code of Conduct, submit a separate form and supporting documentation for each individual.
2. Specify the section(s) of the Faculty Code of Conduct alleged to have been violated.
3. It is important to submit supporting documentation sufficient to substantiate the alleged misconduct. All documents cited or referenced by the complainant should be provided by the complainant and be submitted with the Formal Complaint Form.
4. If there are multiple allegations against an individual, supporting documents must be labeled as to which allegation they pertain. As a suggestion, you might consecutively number each page of the documentation and list the page numbers relating to the specific allegation on the Formal Complaint Form.
5. The complainant must submit all documentation at the time of filing. No further unsolicited material from the complainant will be accepted once the complaint has been submitted to the Campus Provost. Exceptions may be made for relevant evidence that becomes available to the complainant only after the filing of the complaint, but not for new commentary, interpretation, or presentation of evidence available to complainant at the time of filing.
6. Submit the Formal Complaint Form (CAPM 002.015, Appendix A) and supporting documentation to the Campus Provost/Executive Vice Chancellor, Mailstop: Chancellor's Office.

Note: The Campus Provost/Executive Vice Chancellor, or designee, may reject any formal complaint that does not conform to these procedures.
